

Cusack's Digital Arts

Description:

CDA is an idea that stemmed from Dan's love of photography. He has always had a passion for creating images from the age of fourteen and has stayed active in the field working professionally & semiprofessionally since his early teens.

As a family photography studio CDA offers clients an experience that is hard to be matched "their goal is to be your family's photographer not just your wedding photographer! CDA specializes in combining fashion, story-telling and photo journalism to create unique images for their clients.

CDA prides their selves on giving their clients friendly, personal photography service that creates images that reflects their client's personalities and tells the story of their special day. After 16 years of marriage and having been blessed with four beautiful children Dan truly understand the importance of preserving memories that can be enjoyed and passed down for generations. It is a privilege and an honor for everyone at CDA that their clients allow them to be part of and to capture their family history.
